

Position opening: Production assistant

BlueCycle is a new Blue and Circular economy firm and is the first integrated programme in Europe, focusing on the recycling of marine plastic waste, primarily originating from fishing and shipping activities.

We are looking for a production assistant, experienced in plastics machine operation to join our team and help us create a new life cycle for plastic waste, undertaking innovative projects using new technology.

Must be a team player, interested in new technologies and environmentally conscious.

Job description/Main responsibilities

- Operation of plastics machine line(s)
- Timely checks to ensure the high quality of manufactured product
- Perform quality tests of the product
- Packing products
- Comply with all safety rules, wear full PPE when required, all safety policies, procedures & practices to include performing lock out/tag out of production equipment when required
- Diagnose and determine cause for machine malfunctions along with making operator troubleshoot to assigned machines
- Immediately respond to any defective goods
- Fill out labor sheets at end of shift
- Working under BlueCycle Production Manager and answering to the Production Manager and Executive Director
- Labour Intensive Work
- 8 hour working day - overtime might be necessary
- Possibly working within two sites in Attica

Must have/Professional qualifications & experience

- Minimum Education TEI (Technical College or Equivalent)
- At least one-year experience in a manufacturing environment, tending a production machine preferred
- Proficiency in English (oral and written)
- Basic computer skills

BlueCycle reserves the right to revise the job description as needed to comply with actual job requirements.

Qualified applicants will receive consideration of employment without regard to their race, colour, religion, national origin, gender, sexual orientation.

To apply, please send your CV at info@bluecycle.com